K9 Handler/Trainer

Evesham Police Dept.

I have been a police officer for Evesham Police Dept since March 1996. I have had various assignments within the police dept including patrol officer, traffic, fatal accident investigator, DARE, K9 Handler, and K9 Trainer. I have been a K9 handler since Sept. 2000 and the K9 trainer since Dec 2007. During this time I have handled a patrol/explosives canine and currently a patrol/narcotics canine. My canine partner and I attend monthly K9 training sessions and are recertified twice annually. We are a certified K9 team by USPCA, NJ Attorney Generals Office, and the Atlantic County Prosecutors Office. I have been involved in numerous K9 patrol operations, narcotic search warrants, explosive sweeps and dignitary protection details while assigned as a K9 handler. My current K9 partner, K9 Niko, is a certified patrol/narcotics canine that is certified to detect marijuana, cocaine, heroin, meth, ecstasy, and numerous derivatives of these illegal narcotics.
